

The Boat
With No
Sailor

A dark brown boat with two yellow sails is shown on a teal sea. The sky is blue with white clouds. The text is written in a simple, handwritten font.

I'm just a boat with no one to sail me.

I once had a sailor, then he failed me.

Left me at the docks and I floated away,

now I've been alone at sea for more than one day!

Finally, here comes wind and waves!

Sailing at high speeds, I'm finally saved!

I should be happy as I'm sailing along,
but I miss my sailor, I feel so alone.

A pelican landed and I thought we were friends,

But as quickly as it started, it came to an end.

Floating and boating,
through day and through night.

I won't be lost forever,
I hope with all my might!

A stylized illustration of a boat with yellow sails on a teal sea, with a small island in the distance. The boat is dark brown with two bright yellow sails. The sea is a vibrant teal color with wavy lines. In the distance, a small dark island with a single palm tree is visible against a light blue sky with a textured, brush-stroke background.

In the distance I finally see land,

I can't wait to dock on the sand!

As I stop at the island, I see a stranded man!

He's yelling and jumping and waving his hands!

He was lost too and I helped him find home,

Now I have a new sailor of my own!

BVT MULTIMEDIA

CASSIDY SILVA